Manchester June 4 1877

Dear Mr Garrison

From the unsecured

British welcome to you and yours over
me in old England!
I had heard of your arrival at Newcastle before getting the Post Card. I am sorry
not to have heard
in time to meet
you in the morning.
I shall look out for you on Wed. next.

The Franklin Hotel is where it was; -
and you are cordially welcome to use it for bed and board - and to visit friends - during your stay - as guests of W.H.A. Do not feel
the slightest hesitation;
you cannot lay us
a greater compliment or give us greater pleasure than by consenting to be our guests - as one of our choice and beloved allies. Let us know by post how long and how many bedrooms I may

Respectfully yours

I am glad you have had so good a voyage - and I hope never the more in any way I need in the last three copies of Album
- but you will not be so kind to open them.

All our ^{friends} circle here join me in the warm
and in most cordial wishes for your future success
and happiness

her own still keeping away — and are reaching solid tempers.

Love right truly
your friend

Thos. W. Archer
